BRANNON HITS HOME RUN AGAINST BERLY;

GRAY PITCHES WELL

By J. Roy Stockton
Of the Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, Staff

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, April 7.—The Browns proved better snowbirds than the Cardinals and won the opening 1928 baseball game in St. Louis this afternoon before 1500 fans, who shivered in the snow and wind.

The score was 7 to 1.

Various excuses were offered for coming through with the game despite the miserable weather conditions. Manager E. J. Lefty Williams, right, but tried to stretch it out, was out, Hafey to Frisch. Man- napped a single to center. Schu- fled to Blades. Schang lined sons, and they were all bad. One of them said that the persons who had sought reservations in advance would be angry if the game were taken off. Overcoats and furs were necessary, and if all the fans who attended were laid end to end, they would still have the shakes. Moran and Ormsby were the winners.

The Browns were the "home" team today, and appeared in their life uniforms, and the Cardinals wore their traveling gray.

The game:

FIRST INNING.

CARDINALS — Brannon threw at Blades. Holm singled three short and third. Frisch hit fourth of the plate and was out.

SECOND INNING.

CARDINALS — Frisch hit in front of the plate and was out. Blades and Frisch were safe on runners were safe on Mancuso to whiz to second. Gerber singled to center, scoring Blake. McGee stopping at second. Blasholder, trying to bunt, popped to Frisch. O'Rourke fouled to Holm. Brannon popped to Frisch. O'Rourke was out.

THIRD INNING.

CARDINALS — Frisch hit in front of the plate and was out. Blades and Frisch were safe on runners were safe on Mancuso to whiz to second. Gerber singled to center, scoring Blake.
